Acknowledgment to Country

Family Violence Legal Service Aboriginal Corporation (SA) acknowledges the traditional owners of the lands across Australia and particularly the traditional owners in Port Augusta, Port Lincoln and Ceduna, the lands on which the FVLSAC offices are situated. We pay our deep respects to Elders past, present and future.

Is there something we can do better?
Let's have a yarn

Family Violence Legal Service
Aboriginal Corporation (SA)

The Family Violence Legal Service Aboriginal Corporation SA wants to make sure that our clients and community have access to a quality service.

We want to provide services that our communities respect. We know that sometimes things can go wrong. If that happens, we want to make it right.

If there are things we can do better or things we are doing well, we want to hear from you!

What You Can Tell Us

Compliments

You can let us know what we are doing well. It helps our service to know when we get things right.

Concerns or Complaints

We want to know if we are not getting things right or if you are unhappy. It might be a problem with a service, a staff member or something else.

If you are not happy with our service, you have the right to tell us.

To help us help you

- Tell us about your concern as soon as possible
- The sooner we know, the quicker we can help
- Tell us as much information as you can
- Be clear on what your concern is
- Be clear what you want to happen
- Bring a supportive person with you
- Treat us with courtesy and respect

We Will

- Act quickly
- Listen to your concerns
- Treat you with courtesy and respect
- Keep your complaint private and only discuss it with those involved
- Explain your rights
- Tell you how long the process will take
- Let you know what is happening
- Talk about the issues and options
- Talk about solutions
- Let you know the outcome
